

Take It Away

Take it away is an initiative designed to help more people get involved in learning and playing music. Set up to help 18-25 year olds, and parents of children under the age of 18, spread the cost of buying a musical instrument, it provides interest free loans through a network of over 300 musical instrument retailers in England.

You can apply if you are:

- Either aged between 18 and 25 years old
- Or if you are over 18 and applying for a person who is under 18 years old (in store only)
- A Permanent UK resident
- Working at least 16 hours per week
